

Word Of The Day

Week 244

| Word Expression | Korean | Usage | Notes |
|----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Fits the bill | 적합하다, 꼭 들어맞다, 딱 맞다 바로 ~이 필요했던 것이다 | That fits the bill / We need to find something that fits the bill / | When you find a solution to a problem, you can say "that fits the bill" |
| Slum It | (평소 자기가 익숙한 것보다) 형편없는 조건 (상황) 을 감수하다 | I'm having to slum it these days. I have no money / If you buy that you'll have to slum it | To slum it means to do without the luxuries you are used to because you are short of money. |
| Cut corners | (일을 쉽게 하려고) 절차[원칙]를 무시 [생략]하다, 잔머리 굴리다, 요령 피우 다 | You can't cut corners when you are trying to learn English. / Cutting corners never works. | Meaning to take a short cut. |
| Know it all | 아는 체하는 (사람), 똑똑한 체하는 (사람) | I really don't like her, she's such a know it all! / Stop being such a know it all . | Somebody who acts as if they know everything. A very annoying habit. |
| Rotund | (살이 찌서) 통통한 | You'll recognise him, he's a little rotund / My old school friend has become a bit rotund over the years. | A slightly more polite way to describe someone who's a little fat. |
| Get worked up (about something) | 흥분하다, 감정적으로 괴로워하다 | Don't get worked up about it, I'm sure everything will be okay. / What's he worked up about? | Get stressed and / or upset about something |
| Sloppy | 엉성한, 대충 하는 단정하지 않은 | My boss doesn't like sloppy work / He's dressed a bit sloppy this morning / His tie is sloppily tied | Without care |

Week 174 Link >

- Irritable
- Skin full
- Pull the plug
- Moobs
- YOLO
- Atrocious
- Tickety-boo

Week 227 Link >

- Catch on
- Rejig
- Retail therapy
- Teetotal
- Guilty pleasures
- Gobbledygook
- Kicked out

www.fandcorp.com